(a) whether new educational policy refers to only non-Hindu minority groups in the context of educational deprivation, and is to provide to them oertain incentives and facilities;

(b) what are the names of the Sta'es where Hindus are in minority and also the names of the classes amongst them who are educationally deprived; if any;

(c) whether they deserve the same educational incentives and facilities and if not, what are the reasons therefor; and

(d) if the answer to part (c) above be in affirmative, what is the follow-up action taken so far?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) to (d) The National Policy on Education refers to minority groups in the context of educational deprivation and protection of constitutional guarantees given to them. The approach in the new policy is to provide to educationally deprived sections incentives and facilities in order that they may make up the disadvantages transmitted through the social environment and the accident of birth. The states have been requested to identify such educationally backward sections among minorities to provide these incentives and facilities.
